Adobe Express offers professionally designed itinerary templates to give you a good foundation for building your next itinerary. The Adobe Express intuitive interface is a breeze to navigate, allowing you to format your itinerary in whatever way best serves your needs. Play around with color themes, font styles, personal branding, and imagery. Adobe Express saves your design so you can edit it on the go. Begin your journey with our guide below. This is such an easy project to do! This is based upon 4 gingerbread stories, which are The Gingerbread Boy, The Gingerbread Girl, The Gingerbread Pirate, and The Gingerbread Baby. After reading the stories, children choose their favorite gingerbread friend and create it from paper or draw with crayons. I have included a gingerbread outline, gingerbread girl dress, and gingerbread pirate hat and pants templates. There are 3 writing options. The full color illustrations can be laminated and usePage 2Teachers, Librarians, Parents! Use these as colorful displays of kids' favorite books. Have them either write the title of the book or draw a picture of the book cover in the space provided. They can also be used as covers for book reports! I'm a teacher/author and offer Language Arts, Science, Social Studies, American History, Novel Packets, Grammar, Back to School, Holidays, Writing, Poetry, Spelling, Teacher forms products and more! Take a stroll over to my blog, Teacher Park, where youPage 3This beginning book writing template can be used for students to write about adventures, favorite places, favorite times, road trips, vacations and/or field trips. It includes a cover page, title page, book pages with picture boxes and lines, a blank line page, and a glossary with alphabet letters. There are 8 different picture box designs, just recopy the ones students prefer. Ohio's Extended Standards: K-2 and 3-5 Grades K-2 Strand: Writing Topic: Research to Build and Present Knowledge 4 get this organized book shelf, and help your students understand the genre too! There are 200 lovely tags here to help you get your classroom library no matter how you like to organize them. labels are included for genres, favorite authors, favorite series, academic disciplines, themes and topics. the pdf document even includes form fields on the last page to enter your own corresponding text on the 4 blank labels. Did I miss your favorites? let a comment u send me an email, and I adpage 5 you or the chatterpix app in the classroom? If not, it is one must try, for sure. the app allows you to do anything talking. that is also your tagline. you can take u carry an image of anything, that you then draw a line. after drawing the line, you can record for up to 30 seconds. the place where you designed the line makes it look like the object is talking. after this step, you can add eyes, glasses, hat and other objects around u in the object. first, this is an Apple app,page 6I oar this form during our silent reading time. Each student has a day when they meet with me to discuss their book in which they are currently working. I attached 3-5 leaves behind the student dividers within a thick 3-inch binder. When I meet with a student, I write your book title, reading level, date, what we discuss about your book and I set up the student with a new reading goal for the week. we can discuss if they like your book so far, which are the main characters, most fun part, 7"Getting to know you" bookmarksby blank bookmarks to oar to meet the students! serves two purposes - helps you learn about your students' favorite things, and gives students a markerTo use in the class. Blank left so students can color and design anyway they would like! Space left at the top of the student's name and for a hole to be pierced if you want to add tape. I love all things literacy and I'mBook Review with Augmented Realityby Students chose a favorite book that had been previously read. They wrote about their books using the provided template. Students worked with a partner to create an augmented reality project. When the book reviews were linked to the book covers in Aurasma, they were placed in a special basket in our classroom and labeled ¢ÃÂÂAR¢ÃÂÂ so that friends could view each other¢ÃÂÂs recommendations.One of my favorite ways to celebrate spring and poetry is to combine the two. It's super easy to do...especially with this kid-tested, teacher-approved Spring Poetry Writing Lesson and Craftivity!In this lesson students will review different parts of speech, develop an understanding of personification, work collaboratively to write a poem, create a draft of their spring poem, revise and improve their writing, and then create a spring kite with their poem. It's the perfect combination of rigorPage 8Technology Banner is a "Computer lab Favorite" Virtual Classroom Page/Slide for your online resources where you can add links, audio/video, additional slides, your own Bitmoji icons and more.
